[From the Providence Journal] DEATH OF CHILDREN .- BY NORA PERRY. When the baby died, we said, With a sudden, secret dread, "Death, be merciful, and pass-Leave the other:" but, alas! While we watched, he waited there-One foot on the golden stair, One hand beckoning at the gate, Till the home was desolate. Friends say, "It is better so. Clothed in innocence to go"-Say, to ease the parting pain, That "your loss is but their gain." Ah, the parents think of this! But remember more, the kiss From the little rose-red lips; And the print of finger tips Left upon a broken toy, Will remind them how the boy And his sister charmed the days With their pretty, winsome ways. Only Time can give relief To the weary, lonesome grief-

God's sweet minister of pain Then shall sing of loss and gain.

IN COL. ADDISON'S TRAITS AND STORIES OF

Anglo Indian Life, just issued in London, is a curious story of one of the author's expe-$3,227 riences. "One evening I returned more than usually fatigued to my bungalow, and has-300 tened to bed; I was soon asleep, and, as usual, dreaming of Europe and her charms. Suddenly I was awakened by a cold object rest-70 00 other arm towards it; it glided rapidly off-35 00 not, however, until it had inflicted its dreaded bite; for I plainly felt the pain, which, though not acute, was stinging, resembling OTTERY for the benefit of the State of the puncture of a hot instrument, or a sudden Delaware, Class 207, for 1858, to be drawn scald. The fact, however, was obvious. I bad been bitten by a snake, and was probably a dead man. I sprang from my bed, rushed to my dressing table, seized one of my razors, and without hesitation cut out the bitten part. I actually scooped out a piece nearly as large as a nut; then, with my arm bleeding profusely, I rushed towards the 500 lamp, and catching it up, burnt the wounded 250 part for several seconds. By this time several of my servants had arrived, alarmed by my cries. The men ran out and came back each armed with a pliant bamboo, a single stroke from which will instantly kill the most dreaded snake in India. "And now, surround the bed; the reptile cannot have got away. Gently, gently; keep your eyes steadily fixed. He must be under the pillow. Directly I raise it be ready to strike. Ha, there he is!" The eervants at once struck at the object pointed out, and succeeded in killing it. > ONGWORTHY'S PURE OHIO CATAW BA BRANDY.—This Brandy has been manufactured for several years from the PURE JUICE of the CATAWSA GRAPE, thus affording additional evidence of the progress of American enterprise and industry, and of our ability to pro duce articles at home equal to those made by any other nation. The Ohio Catawba Brandy not only equals but excels the best Imported Brandies, in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known.

This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished analytical chemists. The want of pure Brandy has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supercede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded a great public good. The Catawba Brandy possessess all the good qualities claimed for the best Imported Liquors, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Cramp, Cholic, Lan
